

Nursery Home Learning - R.E.

God's existence may be explained to young children simply, by telling them that for a very long time, people have looked at the world and at each other and have thought about how wonderful it all is – and they wondered how it all came to be...and why we are all here. And as they sat quietly and thought they came to a very strong warm loving feeling which seemed to help them understand. They called this feeling of love and hope and protection, 'God'.
