

RE home learning - January 2020

Christmas might have been a little different this year for us, but we were still surrounded by God's love.

Show where you felt God's love this Christmas.

You can present this in any way you like - in writing, in a painting, photographs - the options are endless.

Please bring whatever you create into school when we return, so that we can display it in our new classroom!